

Wickenburg Ranch's Great Hole-in-One Challenge to Benefit Wounded Warrior Project

PHOENIX, April 3, 2018 /PRNewswire-USNewswire/ -- Pin-seekers, rejoice – Wickenburg Ranch, an active lifestyle community in historic Wickenburg, Arizona, is supporting Wounded Warrior Project® (WWP) through a Great Hole-in-One Challenge. Presented in partnership with Infiniti® of Scottsdale, the contest will challenge participants to make a hole-in-one on any hole from any regulation tee during the challenge qualification period, now through April 22. Those with laser-like accuracy can report their hole-in-one to the Sports Shop staff along with a required witness after the round to qualify for the Challenge Final on April 28 at the Big Wick course.

"We are honored to show our support for the Wounded Warrior Project and the important programs and services that they provide to our veterans and service members," said Bill Brownlee, partner of M3 Companies®, development partner in Wickenburg Ranch. "The Great Hole-in-One Challenge is a fun contest for a great cause, and we can't wait for the community to join us on April 28 to celebrate at the Final Challenge."

Participants have a chance to win a new Shea® home or a 2018 Infiniti QX30. Those not hitting the links may enter the sweepstakes for a chance to win several prizes and a 2018 Infiniti QX30 with a requested minimum donation of $10 per ticket, or three tickets for $25, benefiting WWP. Sweepstakes tickets are available at the Wickenburg Ranch Sports Shop or at Infiniti of Scottsdale now through April 27. Participants can show up to the Challenge Final on April 28 to listen for their sweepstakes number to be called and enjoy a day full of fun for the whole family. "The need of this generation of wounded warriors is great and growing," said Gary Corless, WWP chief development officer. "We're grateful for the generosity of proud supporters like Wickenburg Ranch, and for their dedication to engaging with our mission to honor and empower Wounded Warriors. This great event will provide Wounded Warrior Project with the critical resources we need to fuel the life-changing programs and services we offer to the warriors we serve, free of charge."
