Papa John's Announces Special Combo Deal to Support Wounded Warrior Project

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 12, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Starting this week, Papa John's® stores throughout the Southeast U.S. are teaming with Wounded Warrior Project® (WWP) to support injured veterans through sales of a special combo deal – 2 large 2-topping pizzas and a 2-liter Pepsi for $22.22. Between Sept. 11 and Nov. 12, Papa John's will donate $2.22 for every WWP Combo sold at participating locations on papajohns.com.

"Warriors never pay a penny for our programs and services because they paid their dues on the battlefield," said Gary Corless, WWP chief development officer. "The generosity of our donors and partners like Papa John's help ensure wounded veterans are able to achieve their highest ambitions."

"For the second consecutive year, Papa John's restaurants in the Gulf Coast region are proud to support Wounded Warrior Project," said Ray Turner, franchise business director at Papa John's. "We appreciate the great and valuable work they do on behalf of our nation's wounded veterans."
