Wounded Warrior Project Powers Nationwide Network of Veteran Care with New Year of Funding

WWP strengthens its role as the nation's largest nonprofit funder of veterans service organizations, fueling a network of partners that closes gaps in care

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 23, 2025 PRNewswire/ -- Wounded Warrior Project® (WWP) announced today its 2025-2026 community partnership grants, funding 39 best-in-class organizations that will stand alongside WWP to support veterans, service members, their families, and caregivers.

"When a veteran needs support, they don't see organizations and logos — they see people who either show up or don't," said WWP CEO Lt. Gen. (Ret.) Walt Piatt. "That's why Wounded Warrior Project is uniting the veteran service community and leading with action. Keeping the promise to those who served means warriors and their loved ones should never stand alone. We convene the strongest partners and power their work directly. Together, we are saving lives."

WWP has invested $436 million in 221 military and veteran organizations since 2012. These investments improve veterans' quality of life, reduce suicide risk, and provide interconnected, comprehensive support as their needs evolve. With its network of partners, WWP is advancing veteran well-being through unique, integrated solutions.

WWP funds and partners with specialized veterans and military service organizations focused on the following areas:

- Connection and community integration
- Family resiliency and caregivers
- Financial wellness and wrap-around services
- Special operation forces
- Seen and unseen wounds of war

The organizations WWP is partnering with in 2025-2026 are:
