Helping During the Holidays: Support Companies that Honor Wounded Warriors

When shopping this holiday season, here are several ways you can support organizations that are giving back to Wounded Warrior Project® (WWP) warriors and their families:

- Sign-up for AmazonSmile on your Amazon account and select WWP as your charity of choice. A percentage of each purchase will provide life-changing programs and services to warriors and their families. AmazonSmile is free through the Amazon app on Android and iOS.

- Purchase a Giving Good™ WWP Card, which features nine national entertainment, dining, and retail brands. Blackhawk Network will donate 3% of the load value of every card to WWP. Blackhawk Network has also supported WWP warrior and peer support group leaders by gifting these deserving individuals $20,000 in gift cards the past two years.*

- Harley-Davidson® is donating 10% of the suggested retail price of every piece of WWP co-branded merchandise back to WWP. Shop now.

- Need a good pocketknife to cut through all the wrapping paper and packaging? Buy a WWP co-branded Victorinox Swiss Army Knife and Victorinox will donate 5% of each sale back to WWP.

- Here are four more partners featuring the WWP logo on their products:
  - DevilDog jeans
  - Pandol grapes
  - Basecamp products

WWP partners provide critical support toward honoring and empowering injured veterans and their families. Warriors never pay a penny for any WWP program or service because they already paid their dues on the battlefield.
